By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—Secretary of State Acheson today blasted the Chinese Communists as tools of Russia and declared United States willingness to help the people of China establish true independence.

The secretary reviewed U. S.-China relations at a news conference after issuance of a state department report in which he wrote off China's Nationalist government as a total failure.

In a statement he laid down the five "basic principles" which he said should govern U. S. policy toward China.

He declared he was not in the

Cowhand's Six-Gun Kills Two At Rodeo

Texas Rider Shoots Down Judge and Spectator

Big Spring, Tex., Aug. 5 (AP)—Bullets from a cowhand's sixgun killed a rodeo judge and an on-looking cowboy college student last night.

Herb Grizzell, a Brahman bull rider from Besant, over near the East Texas line, ignored a rodeo crowd of about 2,500 when he went gunning for Judge Henry Preston (Buck) Jones, about 45, of Ranger.

He cut down Jones with a .38 caliber bullet through the chin. A wild shot killed Carl C. Meyers of Abilene, 23, president of the Hardin-Simmons University Rodeo association.

Former Howard County Sheriff Jess Slaughter jumped on Frizzell and yanked the pistol out of his hand. A bunch of cowboys, running awkwardly in their high-heeled boots, dashed up to help Slaughter.

Sheriff Bob Wolf locked Frizzell in the county jail. Frizzell was charged with murder in both deaths.

Wolf said the shooting ended an argument that had occurred about two hours earlier between Frizzell and Jones.

The crowd jumped and roared as Frizzell's pistol flashed and Jones fell in the arena dirt.

It had already been a wild night, even for a West Texas rodeo. Two cowboys had been thrown and hurt by unruly broncs.

Greyhound Bus Line Pay Raise Proposal Submitted to Union

Minneapolis, Aug. 5 (AP)—Union officials met here today to study a new offer of the Northland Greyhound Bus Company for settlement of the 100-day old bus line strike for higher wages.

The strike began April 27, idling 1,300 employees on the 10,000-mile system in eight states and one Canadian province.

The union directors, after a study of the offer, will make recommendations to union locals before they are given ballots Monday. Tabulation of results will be completed next Wednesday.

James Fillane, federal conciliator in Chicago, said yesterday the company offered a .45 cent a mile increase for drivers, 25 cents daily for drivers making out reports and a 12½ cents hourly wage boost for other employees.

The union had asked 6.5 cents more for drivers, the 25 cent report pay and 15 cents more per hour for other employees.

The line serves Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, Illinois, Wisconsin, Montana, and the Province of Manitoba, Canada.

Army Chiefs Want To Keep Draft Law As War Insurance

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—The Army wants the draft law retained as insurance in case of a sudden outbreak of war, instead of letting it die next June.

The national military establishment said today that the matter of asking Congress to extend the draft will be considered by the joint chiefs of staff.

While the Navy and Air Force haven't made up their minds, Lt. Gen. E. H. Brooks, director of Army personnel, said in an interview that the ground forces want the law to stay on the books.

Congress, Brooks said, might not have time to enact a new selective Service act in case of swift attack. And even after passage of such a law, he added, it would be 60 to 90 days before the necessary machinery could be set up.

Still 20,000 Short
Under the present standby law, which has not been used since January, men could be drafted immediately.

Of the three armed services, the Army alone has had need of the draft since World War II ended. The Navy and Air Force, being smaller, have kept up their strength through voluntary enlistments.

Brooks said the Army feels time would be paramount in the event of another war and any delay might be dangerous.

"We don't plan to use the present draft law if we can possibly maintain our required strength by voluntary enlistments," he said. "We have no plans for issuing a draft call in the immediate future."

"But we still feel that it should be kept on the books—like money in the bank for use in case of an emergency. A month's delay might be tragic next time."

At present the Army is more than 20,000 men short of the 677,000-man ceiling allowed in President Truman's budget.

But Brooks said officials are not worried over the shortage. They expect recruiting, which has been lower than expected recently, to pick up gradually.

State Solons Growl About Labor Board

Emergency Fund Granted For Ford Strike Vote

By JAMES A. O. CROWE

Lansing, Aug. 5 (AP)—Amidst some growls accusing the state labor mediation board of favoring labor, the Republican-controlled "Little Legislature" yesterday approved emergency funds for the agency to conduct strike votes.

The $54,000 finally appropriated by the emergency appropriations commission, as the "Little Legislature" is officially styled, was some $25,000 short of the $79,130 requested.

The board had asked for the money to finance an impending strike vote of Ford Motor Co. Employees, future strike votes, and other duties imposed by the full legislature.

The all-day session, which except for brief exchanges on the labor board question was quiet, was presided over by Governor Williams. A voting member, the Governor did not participate in debate.

The move to cut the board's emergency appropriation was led by Senator Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), chairman of the Senate Finance committee. He said the $54,000 would finance the board's operation for six months rather than for the 11 months requested.

"After all," he said, "the full legislature will be in session early in 1950 at the latest, and it can consider the board's request for any more money then."

The total approved appropriation was broken down as $20,000 for the Ford vote, $20,000 for anticipated future strike votes, $7,500 for salaries and expenses, of mediation commissions in hospital and utility disputes, and $6,500 for two new conciliators, a new stenographer, and supplies.

Midwest Corn Crop To Set New Record

C.G.N.W. Agent Predicts 3,750,000,000 Bushels

By WILLIAM FERRIS
Chicago, Aug. 5 (AP)—In the Midwest corn is busting out all over.

Another national crop in excess of three billion dollars—the fourth in history—appears assured. There is a good possibility the crop will set an all-time record for the second year in a row.

Latest estimates on the crop range from 3,560,000,000 bushels, made by C. M. Galvin of the grain firm of James E. Bennett and Company, to 3,750,000,000 bushels, made by H. J. Gramlich, general agricultural agent of the Chicago and North Western railway.

Last year's all-time record totalled 3,650,548,000 bushels. Gramlich believes this will be topped.

Corn must be stored if farmers are to get a government price support loan. The loan has not been announced yet, but on the basis of present parity prices grain men estimate it will be about $1.54 a bushel at Chicago.

December corn futures on the Chicago Board of Trade are selling nearly 40 cents a bushel under this figure. That price is a clear indication grain traders believe the corn support program, which tottered last winter, will fall apart next winter.

Traders explained, however, that such a price might make it profitable for farmers to build bins for storage. They reasoned it would cost less to build the bin, and get a government loan on the grain, than to send the grain to market at a price 40 cents under the loan.

Supporters Of Taft Back In GOP Saddle

New Chairman Elected By 5-Vote Margin

By JACK BELL

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—A Republican national committee split squarely down the middle found itself under the command today of a new chairman, Guy G. Gabrielson of New Jersey.

Gabrielson is a 58-year-old lawyer-industrialist. Elected by a five-vote margin over Axel J. Beck, South Dakota farmer-businessman, he promised complete neutrality as between candidates for president and Congress.

But Gabrielson's election yesterday by a 52 to 47 vote over Beck—State Chairman A. T. "Bert" Howard of Nebraska got a single vote—put the national party's machinery back in the familiar hands of long time supporters of Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

The new chairman succeeded Rep. Hugh D. Scott Jr. of Pennsylvania, picked at last year's Republican convention by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York. Thus, a Taft supporter in Gabrielson took over from a Dewey backer who in turn had replaced a Taft advocate, former chairman Carroll Reece of Tennessee.

With his skin-of-teeth victory behind him Gabrielson faces as wide a committee split as Scott inherited in the 54 to 50 vote which defeated an attempt to oust him at an Omaha meeting last January.

Friends of the new chairman said, however, they think Gabrielson may prove more adept in getting warring factions together than was Scott.

Lansing Spot Loses Liquor License On State-Owned Land

Lansing, Aug. 5 (AP)—Attorney General Stephen J. Roth held today that no special privileges could be extended to the holder of a liquor license in the state-owned boulevard building in Detroit.

Although it was not intended by the legislature, the building came under an act passed at the last session forbidding the sale of liquor on state-owned lands.

Roth held that the present liquor license held by a tenant of the building would expire May 1, 1950 and could not be renewed. He also ruled that no extension could be made before the law goes into effect.

The holder of the liquor license, a bowling alley proprietor, had protested that he had made extensive alterations under the impression he would be able to retain his license. He had asked for a five-year extension.

Tito Alerts Army To Guard Against Red Intimidation

By ALEX SINGLETON

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Aug. 5 (AP)—Yugoslav troops were in a state of alert today to guard against what Premier Marshal Tito called provocations and intimidation by his Soviet-dominated neighbors.

Tanjung, the official news agency, last night quoted Marshal Tito as saying bloody clashes already had taken place in Macedonia. The stormy Balkan region lies between Communist Bulgaria and Albania, with Greece on the southern border.

Tito said the Cominform countries wanted to crush Yugoslavia but so far had failed. He declared that the majority of the peoples of the eastern countries sided with Yugoslavia despite the opposition of their cominform governments.

He said rumors of a threatened Soviet army attack on Yugoslavia were first spread by people in western countries who thought "we would helter-skelter fall on our bosoms to save ourselves." He added:

"We knew that the Red army cannot attack a Socialist country because that would mean the end of Socialism in the world."

"But today," he continued, "those in the east are also trying to intimidate us, disseminating various rumors over the so-called black market on so many and so many Soviet divisions on this or that place, on so many artillery troops here or there."

Declaring Yugoslavia would remain vigilant, Tito warned the eastern countries: "We shall not allow them to hamper the construction of our country."

Start of the Straits swim from the British island at Mackinac Island to the St. Ignace State Ferry dock was scheduled for 8:30 a. m. Saturday. A parade, featuring all the Upper Peninsula units of the Michigan National Guard, will follow.

The $10,000,000 Coast Guard Cutter Mackinaw will dock here and hold open house for visitors Saturday and Sunday.

Sunrise services at the grave of the pioneer priest, Father Marquette, the arrival of dawn patrol flyers, a pageant depicting the arrival of the missionary priest, and boat races are on the schedule for Sunday.

South Korea Ousts 6000 Red Invaders

Seoul, Aug. 5 (AP)—The United Nations Command today ousted 6,000 North Korean Communist soldiers from South Korea.

The United Nations Command today ousted 6,000 North Korean Communist soldiers from South Korea.

Maj. Gen. Choi Byung Duk estimated that the North Korean army lost 6,000 soldiers in the attack on Ongjin Peninsula by the Communist North.

The government said the southern army recently had occupied two strong points just over the border in North Korea. He said these were lost to the North in the renewed fighting.

Tito said his troops were in a "state of alert in order to safeguard the peaceful construction of our Socialist country."

The premier, who defied Soviet dictation a year ago in a row with the Cominform (Communist International Information Bureau), accused his eastern neighbors of trying to intimidate Yugoslavia by spreading rumors of a threatened Red army invasion.

Tito said the Cominform countries wanted to crush Yugoslavia but so far had failed. He declared that the majority of the peoples of the eastern countries sided with Yugoslavia despite the opposition of their cominform governments.

He said rumors of a threatened Soviet army attack on Yugoslavia were first spread by people in western countries who thought "we would helter-skelter fall on our bosoms to save ourselves." He added:

France Seeks Voice In Atlantic Defense

Paris, Aug. 5 (AP)—American military chiefs of staff met today with French leaders who are seeking assurances that France won't be shoved into the background in drafting Atlantic Pact defense strategy.

The three U. S. joint chiefs of staff arrived here yesterday from London. They held newsmen there they expected the 12-nation defense organization would be functioning by the end of the year.

The American staff chiefs are nearing the end of a 10-day fact finding tour of Western Europe. They will talk over defense problems with chiefs of staff from Belgium, Holland and Portugal tomorrow.

The U. S. chiefs—Navy Adm. Louis E. Denfeld, Army Gen. Omar N. Bradley and Air Forces Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg—will be guests at a luncheon given by defense minister Paul Ramadier.

The French are chiefly interested, informed sources said, in getting assurances that France will be given at least an equal voice with Britain in top level strategy planning.

President Indicates Program Can Not Be Trimmed Safely

Objections To European Aid Fund Lessened

Washington, Aug. 5 (AP)—The administration sent to Congress today a new arms-for-Europe bill shorn of provisions giving President Truman power to decide when and where aid should be given.

The new measure, submitted to the House and the Senate, named specifically the countries to be aided under the $1,450,000,000 program.

It made no change, however, in cost of the proposed program. The proposed outlay has been criticized sharply by both Republicans and Democrats in Congress. They want the amount cut at least in half.

The rewritten measure was submitted to the Senate by Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the foreign relations committee and to the House by Chairman Kee (D-W. Va.) of the foreign affairs committee.

Connally told reporters the new bill was drafted by Secretary of State Acheson and has the approval of Secretary of Defense Johnson.

Must Settle For Less
Mr. Truman told a news conference yesterday that he did not care whether he gets authority which critics had claimed would have empowered him to give military aid to any country in the world under almost unlimited conditions.

He did make a fresh demand for the full amount of money asked, however.

The revamped bill would give rearmament aid to the nations which have signed the North Atlantic pact, to Greece and Turkey, Iran, Korea, and the Philippines.

There was no provision left, as in the original bill, to permit the president to extend aid to any other nation he believed required help in the interest of United States security.

"If the president has yielded on one major area of controversy, he can back up on another," a top Republican on the House foreign affairs committee told newsmen. "He will have no choice. He will have to settle for a smaller amount and a more limited program."

Bridges Takes Hand In Hawaiian Strike

San Francisco, Aug. 5 (AP)—President Harry Bridges of the CIO Longshoremen's union and a federal conciliator left by air late last night for longshore-struck Hawaii.

With Bridges was George Hillenbrand of the federal conciliation service. Bridges has been expected to take a direct hand in the Hawaii dock strike, which is now in its 97th day and has threatened to involve the Pacific Coast.

Earlier Bridges had offered to enter into peace talks in Washington, D. C., with Hawaii employer representatives, but they declined. Hawaii strikers are demanding a 32-cent raise above their pre-strike $1.40 hourly basic rate.

HOSKIN DIES IN MENOMINEE

Was Founder Of Paper Company There

Menominee, Mich.—Richard W. S. Hoskin, founder in 1919 of the Hoskin Paper company, one of Menominee's largest industries, died in his home, 1302 Sheridan road, at 6:15 a. m. Thursday. He had been in failing health with heart and arterial ailments.

Funeral services are to be held in the family home at 2 p. m. Saturday with the Rev. David Evans Buzza, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. The family requested that flowers be omitted. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

Richard William Sheridan Hoskin was born Nov. 13, 1874, in Montreal, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Richard H. Hoskin. The father, an Episcopalian clergyman, held a pastorate in Montreal, came to the United States when his son was five years old and served pastored in this country. Richard Hoskin lived with his family in Iowa, in Windsor, Ont., Holland, Mich., and Detroit.

He came to Menominee in 1901 from Detroit as a representative of R. G. Dun & Co., managing the Twin City and Green Bay offices of that credit rating firm here until 1905, when he terminated 15 years of service with Dun to join the management of the Menominee & Marinette Paper company, of which he became manager. The firm operated both the Park mill in Marinette and the Menominee mill at Eriditz street. When the mills were sold in 1919 to the Continental Paper company (they are now owned by the Scott Paper Co.) Mr. Hoskin organized the Hoskin-Moraineville Paper company here and construction was started the same year on a paper mill in Menominee.

On Nov. 12, 1902, Mr. Hoskin wed Miss Nellie Spies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Spies, Menominee in the Spies home on Sheridan road. Four children of their marriage survive: Mrs. Stuart C. (Gertrude) Law of Glenwood, Ill.; Richard A. Hoskin, 1510 Sheridan road; Mrs. Lawrence (Mary) Rahilly, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; and Mrs. Fred N. (Helen) Rundquist of Beloit, Wis.

Camp For Crippled Children Ends; 25 There For Season

The annual summer camp, for crippled and afflicted children of Delta county, held this year for the first time in the recently completed crippled children's camp on the Ford River bay shore, has ended after a successful four-week period. It was reported today by Clarence Moore, camp director and physical therapist for the Escanaba schools.

Twenty-five children spent a healthful month at the camp, where a program of handicraft and recreation was conducted for the benefit of the youngsters.

Moore was assisted at the camp by Counselors Donald Wickholm, Jean Beck, Mrs. Dick Knopp and Edith Harrington, and Junior Counselors Barbara O'Donnell and Jacqueline VanEffen.

A program of woodcraft, handicraft, games and waterfront activities was enjoyed by the boys and girls, who were transported to the camp by bus in the morning and returned to their homes in the evening. At lunchtime they were served a meal at camp, with members of the Rotary Club delivering a hot dish to camp at noon.

The children made many handicraft articles and also built a swimming raft and made floats to outline a wading area for the small children at the beach. They enjoyed music and once each week the camp was visited by Robert Meyer, director of instrumental music in Escanaba schools.

A campfire program Wednesday evening marked the close of camp for the season, and included the singing of a camp song written by Eleanor Nelson, one of the young campers. At that time a plaque of appreciation made by the children was presented to the Rotary Club.

Next year the camping season will be for a longer period and the attendance is expected to be larger.

Petitions Circulated For Nationwide Airlines

Petitions are being circulated in the Upper Peninsula to support the application by Nationwide Airlines for a franchise to carry air mail between Houghton, Marquette, Iron Mountain, Menominee, Escanaba, Lansing and Detroit.

The petitions will be sent to Congressmen John B. Bennett and Charles E. Potter of the Twelfth and Eleventh districts respectively.

The Wisconsin Central Airlines was authorized to carry air mail to Upper Peninsula communities, but thus far has not taken steps to operate planes over the route.

The Nationwide Airlines has been operating a passenger and express line, linking the two peninsulas, the past couple years. It is now applying to the Civil Aeronautics Board for an air mail franchise.

Eleventh district residents are urged to sign the following petition and mail it to Rep. Charles E. Potter, House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

(As a resident of the Eleventh district, I hereby petition you to use your influence to obtain CAB approval of the application by Nationwide Air lines for an air mail franchise on its route:

STREET CLOSING PLAN STUDIED

Development Of Royce
Park Proposed

The city council Thursday evening adopted a resolution indicating its intention of vacating South 18th street between Sixth and Seventh avenues for the development of the Royce Park recreational area and set Thursday, Sept. 1 for final action and the hearing of objections to the plan.

Several property owners living in that vicinity appeared before the council last night to oppose the closing of the street. They were advised to restate their objections when the council takes up the matter for final action Sept. 1.

Ken Gunderman, chairman of the recreation board, told the council that it is not planned to close the street until funds are available for completion of the Royce Park area, including the installation of a wading pool for children and playground apparatus. A similar program is planned for Webster Park, which has been given first priority by the recreation board.

There were no objections to a series of street paving proposals and paving assessments were adopted for the following streets: 1400 block S. 13th street, 500 block South 18th street, 500 block North 18th street, Ninth avenue south, 16th to 18th streets, First avenue north, Stephenson avenue to 19th street and Seventh avenue south, 15th to 16th streets.

Paving improvements for the following streets also were authorized and a hearing on paving assessments for these streets will be held at a later meeting of the council: Fourth avenue south, 11th to 15th streets; Seventh avenue south, 14th to 15th streets, North 19th street, Fourth to Fifth avenues; Ninth avenue south, 18th to 19th streets.

All these areas will be paved with blacktop. A petition for paving Third avenue south, 15th to 16th streets, also was presented to the council together with petitions for paving the following alleys: between Ludington and First avenue south, 12th to 13th streets, Ludington and First avenue south, Fifth to Sixth streets.

New Garbage Ordinance
The council approved the installation of water mains on Eighth avenue south from 19th to 23rd streets, agreeing to accept special assessment liens against the property of two owners who opposed the main extension. No objections were presented to assessments for water main extension in the 1200 block of South 16th street.

The council deferred for further study a proposed trailer ordinance which would prohibit the use of trailers in the city for periods of more than two weeks. The council indicated that before adopting the ordinance, an amendment will be written into the ordinance which would permit one extension for a period not to exceed two additional weeks.

Action also was deferred on the selection of an auditing firm to audit the city's books. The council accepted for first reading a new garbage ordinance. The ordinance would establish charges for extra labor in picking up garbage receptacles not placed on the curb or alley by home occupants. The ordinance further requires that garbage be placed in metal containers not exceeding 30 gallons capacity.

The purchase of a stoker at the fair grounds exhibition building at a price of $400 was approved by the council. The stoker is owned by the National Guard, which has vacated the fairgrounds building. The city desires the stoker for heating the building for recreational purposes in the winter months.

Consideration also was given by the council for the purchase of land near the city water tank for recreational purposes. The recreation department was authorized to negotiate with the owner towards a satisfactory purchase price.

The next meeting of the council will be held Friday, Aug. 19 because the regular meeting night, Thursday, Aug. 18, is Escanaba

City Will Pay Up Balances On Dock, Coliseum Property

The city council decided last night to pay the balance in full on the ore dock property purchased from the federal government and the balance still owed on the Coliseum building in order to save interest charges, estimated at $1800 a year.

The city still owes $38,000 on the dock property and $12,000 on the Coliseum building. Both properties were being purchased by the city on an installment payment basis. The interest charges are 4 percent.

City Manager Aronson explained that the city can use tax funds now available to pay the balances on the two properties. When these funds are needed towards the end of the fiscal year for financing the operation of the city government, the money can be borrowed from local banks at a substantially lower interest rate on a short term basis until new tax funds are received.

The arrangement also will make it possible for the city to acquire a clear title to the ore dock property and avoid complications on leases and options issued by the city in various deals concerning the dock property.

STATE PLANS TROUT POOLS

To Blast Rocky Escanaba
River Near Cornell

Reservoirs for trout during low-water stages on the Escanaba river will be blasted from limestone rock in the river bed south of Cornell, it was reported here today by Art Feldhausen, lake and streams improvement supervisor for the department of conservation.

The work is expected to start in about two weeks, Feldhausen said. He is in Delta county now preparing to obtain easements from owners of property adjacent to the river where the blasting will be done.

The stream improvement project has been scheduled since last spring but has been delayed by the unseasonably large volume of water. Now declining, the water is shallow enough to permit the start of drilling in the limestone river bed.

Pools An Experiment
Pools or reservoirs to a depth of about six feet will be blasted in the river bed. These will provide a place where trout may live during the low water level and are expected to improve fishing in that area. During the summer the water is often so low that the river bed can be crossed dry-shod.

A short distance below the places where the pools will be formed the state has established a public fishing site to provide access to the river. There is a gravelled driveway, parking area, and toilets.

Feldhausen emphasized that the river trout pools project is an experiment. A similar work is now under way near Channing, where the rocky bottom of Ford River is being blasted.

Clear Trout Lakes

Joseph Yorty, crew leader, and five others are now at work there. They will then come to Escanaba. If the trout pool project is a success there will be more such improvements made in the future, Feldhausen said. If the work here is delayed by rains and higher water it will not be completed until next year, he added.

Feldhausen is also carrying out lake improvements in the Upper Peninsula, including the poisoning of stunted perch and other undesirable fish from five lakes scheduled to be planted to trout. These lakes have been selected for trout stocking after exhaustive biological studies.

They are Perch and Big Trout lakes in the Gwinn area of Marquette county; Holland Lake north of Newberry in Luce county; Dutch Fred Lake north of Seney in Schoolcraft county; and Lake

Marquette Office Able To Take All U.P. Tax Returns

Marquette, Mich.—John B. Fugere division chief of the Upper Peninsula office of the United States Department of Internal Revenue in Marquette, today urged Upper Michigan residents to "take advantage of the facilities offered by the office."

The Marquette Internal Revenue

office, is the central station of the Peninsula for all Federal tax returns.

Use of the Marquette office in the filing of Federal tax returns means quicker service, Fugere said.

"It is easier to maintain an accurate record of U. P. accounts here," he said, pointing out that whereas larger Federal tax offices "deal in thousands," the Marquette office staff "deals in hundreds."

Quicker Response Here

Because of the longer distance to other tax offices, a quicker response is received when transacting tax business through the Marquette office, Fugere said.

"We are fully equipped to sell beer, cigar and documentary stamps here," he said.

A cashier's office is maintained here and all money received is deposited in a Marquette bank. Any type of tax form or blank is available at the Marquette Internal Revenue office.

In addition to Fugere, members of the U. P. office staff here are J. Edward Pearce, Gordon T. Daun and Al Paul, deputy collectors; Miss Jane Wingmuth, teller, and Mrs. Olga Musolf, secretary.

Copper Subsidy Would Be Insurance Premium

GOVERNOR WILLIAMS—He made out a good case for federal subsidies to permit continued operation of the Upper Peninsula copper mines.

The governor has conceded that public funds should not be used to prop inefficient and uneconomical industries as a general policy. The copper situation, however, is distinctly unusual. Copper is a strategic metal. For many uses there simply is no satisfactory substitute. In times of war or national emergencies, the lack of an adequate supply of copper could mean the difference between victory and defeat.

It simply is not practical to close down a copper mine when business gets slack and then start it up again when the demand accelerates. The mines fill with water unless the pumps are running continuously and the cost of draining the mines is tremendous. Also it takes a long, long time to do so and time is something that cannot be bought at any price when war comes.

This is the compelling reason that justifies a federal subsidy of the Upper Peninsula copper mines. The governor cites other reasons, the cost of maintaining copper miners on welfare rolls when their job insurance benefits expire and the economic blight that the mine closings has brought to the Copper Country. These reasons, however, human as they are, could be cited to justify federal subsidies for other private enterprises and the governor himself concedes that such subsidies from public funds are unwise and contrary to the principles of our extremely successful capitalistic system.

A copper subsidy for Upper Peninsula mines would, in effect, be an insurance premium to guarantee an adequate source of copper when and if this nation is threatened by war. That should be reason enough to keep the mines operating.

Hurrah For The "No Club"

HURRAH for Escanaba's newest organization, the "No Club."

We heartily confess that we like the club's purposes, particularly because we fully appreciate and understand the motivating factors that prompted the club's existence.

The No club has no dues, no rules, no officers. No organization. It has set aside Friday night as its meeting night but the No club will never meet. Its members instead will reserve Friday night as family night and members will say No to all invitations, the acceptance of which would separate the family.

In a sense the creation of the No club implies that Escanaba is over-organized, that there are too many luncheon, service, fraternal, civic, social and welfare clubs in this city. We do not subscribe to that viewpoint because it is acknowledged that each of these organizations serves a useful purpose in the community. Certainly Escanaba would be a drab city without them.

Nevertheless, harassed as we are by meetings of this, that and the other club so many days and evenings of every week, it must be conceded that there is room for at least one more club, a club that guarantees to give us one night in the week for ourselves and our families.

Hurrah again for the No club.

No Quarrel About School Lunch Program

IN THE CURRENT controversy over federal aid to education, it is interesting to note that not a word of criticism has been directed against one federal aid program to schools that has been in operation for a number of years. We are referring, of course, to the federal school lunch program.

The school lunch program this year will cost the United States government $64,625,000, an increase of $5,750,000 from last year. Virtually everyone concedes that this program makes possible an excellent service to the nation's school children, at the same time contributing in no small degree to the improvement of the health of the students.

The school lunch project is a cooperative effort, with its grass roots at the local level. The project is by no means entirely financed by the federal government. Federal money is used only to provide some of the food products used in the school lunch project. Additional financial help comes from the various school districts, and in many cases the parents of the students contribute their labor in preparing and serving the lunches.

We are happy to note that the religious controversy has never been a factor in the school lunch program, at least not in this area.

THE COUNTRY COMES TO N. Y.

(Grand Rapids Press)
Square dancing is the latest craze to hit New York. Bobbysoxers and grandparents alike gather in the parks by the thousands to "promenade left" to the strains of "Chicken Reel" and "Irish Washerwoman." Most of its residents probably never have seen a barn, but they've taken barn-dancing to heart.

The fad was slow in invading the sophisticated precincts of the big town. Though it may come as something of a shock to most New Yorkers to hear it, folks have been square dancing in this country for more than a hundred years—some of them apparently, without stopping for more than a slight respite. Years ago Henry Ford gave this rustic pastime some extra stimulus when he went in for sponsoring old time fiddlers and the like. It has been picking up new devotees ever since.

Now that square dancing has taken New York we may expect a scholarly treatise from someone explaining why it has happened. Someone is certain to point out that folk singing and folk singers are enjoying a great vogue along with the country dance. This will be viewed as the expression of an innate desire to get back to the simple, uncomplicated life of our forefathers. If someone doesn't represent all this as being a revolt against modern life we shall be greatly surprised. The trouble with that theory is that people who never were in revolt against anything but boredom danced to "Turkey in the Straw" long before an atom bomb came along to disturb their tranquility. They did it just for the fun of it. Can't we explain the present phenomenon the same way and let it go at that?

NO GOLD IN THOSE HILLS

(Grand Rapids Press)
The residents of Columbia, Calif., are sadder but wiser—and also poorer—as a result of a 1949 "gold-prospecting" venture. It was 100 years ago that gold was found at Sutter's Mill, not too far away from what is now Columbia. Californians have been observing the centennial in appropriate style. Columbia thought it should cut itself in for some of the easy money to be had from staging centennial celebrations. Its residents made elaborate plans to entertain possibly as many as 80,000 visitors. Only a few thousand persons showed up.

The result was that a great many Columbians went broke—or nearly so. To cite but one example: A woman killed 160 chickens and 18 ducks, put them up in the form of box lunches and then sat back to wait for business. It never came. She still had 230 of her 250 box lunches when the "celebration" ended.

Several reasons were offered to explain the fiasco—among them the fact that the thermometer hit 108 degrees and that the town had a rule preventing visitors from driving in. There's one other that no one seems to have thought of—the fact that centennials are getting to be as common as summer rash. Michigan has had several of them in the last year or two; California has had more and several other western states have had a fair sprinkling. Maybe the real reason why the Columbia centennial flopped is simply that there's nothing very unusual about a town's being a hundred years old.

MISS INGRID TERVONEN

(Sault Ste. Marie News)
Chippewa county will miss Ingrid Tervonen.

The home demonstration agent has been assigned to Escanaba and the transfer is effective August 1.
She was in Chippewa county for only two years, but in that time, both the Homemakers and 4-H girls' work have been expanded. This is mostly due to her efforts, hard work and general acceptance throughout Chippewa county.

Membership in Homemakers groups has grown from 450 to nearly 600; girls' enrollment in 4-H clothing work from about 276 to 362. This is a fine record and it speaks for itself.

Miss Tervonen's work called for more than 40 hours a week and she gave freely of her time. The results are evident. She has done a fine job in the county and The Evening News wishes to express its gratitude for that job.

We wish her every success in her new assignment.

"AREN'T I?" IS WRONG

How unfortunate it is that good English isn't as "catching" as bad English! It seems that we Americans have a positive genius for picking up and popularizing the illiterate errors which we hear and read.

The asinine "aren't I?" is a good case in point. "Aren't I?" was picked up and parroted by American writers who saw the illiterate expression in trashy British fiction. With ecstatic cries they introduced "aren't I?" into their own cheap writings in the fatuous belief that the expression is "society" English.

And now, in almost every issue of every magazine, on almost every radio play, in almost every motion picture, we are entranced by some smarty-pants female character who remarks elegantly, "I'm a bad girl, aren't I, John?"

It hardly seems necessary to point out that "aren't I?" is the contraction for "are not I?" a locution that is in every day as illiterate as "you am" and "we is." Nevertheless, the hacks who grind out fiction, film plays, and radio scripts, and, indeed, some teachers of English think that "aren't I?" is pretty hot stuff. They need to go back to the third grade and brush up on their personal pronouns.

Affectation is bad enough. But affectation plus ignorance is nothing short of idiocy.

Gabrielson May Be G.O.P. Head

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—By Republican definition normalcy is a happy state in which you know where you're going with no foolish or idealistic detours. All the signs indicate that the Republican party is moving in that direction.

The dominant group in the Republican national committee is determined to liquidate the experiments of the past. It wants no more of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's "me-tooism." And it remembers with a kind of horror back of Dewey to the unhappy experiment with the late Wendell Willkie.

If all goes as these men mean it to go, the new chairman will be Guy George Gabrielson, national committeeman from New Jersey. Gabrielson is one of their own.

WRITTEN IN ADVANCE

Today's column by Marquis Childs was written prior to the appointment of Mr. Gabrielson as GOP chairman. The appointment of Mr. Gabrielson was announced Thursday night.

He is rated a shrewd, careful operator and a highly successful business lawyer whose income is estimated at not less than $200,000 a year.

ARDENT TAFT MAN

The significant fact, of course, is that Gabrielson was an ardent Taft man at the 1948 GOP convention in Philadelphia. He is a Taft man today, which is the chief reason he has the support of Taft's friends on the committee.

While he never openly criticized the Dewey campaign of last fall, Taft in private has aired his own sharp analysis of Dewey's faults and failures. If Taft is the nominee in 1952, he certainly will not fall into the error of me-tooism, which in the Taft view was Dewey's greatest weakness.

Step by step the Senator from Ohio has sought to carve out his own position on domestic issues. He means this to be the moderate position between the right wing of his own party and the Truman Fair Deal. Right-wingers in Taft's party don't like this stand on housing and aid to education. But they will swallow it.

Taft has taken a big step toward ending the Dewey me-tooism. In opposing the foreign policy line of the Vandenberg-Dulles-Dewey wing, he takes his own stand in the foreign field.

At the present time, with many Republicans and independent voters strongly in favor of the bipartisan approach to foreign policy, this has an unpopular look. But it is possible the errors of the Truman administration, such as the provision in the arms aid bill giving the president sweeping powers to send guns anywhere, may give it quite another look by 1952.

NO CLAMOR FOR OFFICE

If the chairmanship goes to Gabrielson, it will be in a sense by default. The languid headlines of the past 10 days have not reflected a passionate race for the office. The chief interest has been on the part of presidential aspirants anxious to keep rivals from nailing down the top position.

There is some regional resentment that an easterner should take over in the light of the history of the party since Alf Landon and the 1936 campaign. This originates chiefly from the backers of A. T. "Bert" Howard, GOP state chairman in Nebraska.

Howard, mayor of Scotts Bluff, Neb., is touted for his 29 years in grass-roots politics. The big argument is that the GOP must win back the middle west or risk passing out of the picture once and for all as a national party. And in the middle west are the critical contests of next year.

Howard's principal backer is Nebraska's Sen. Kenneth Wherry. A boomlet for Senator Wherry for president in '52 has been rumored. But the senator's friends say this is hardly more than a bit of propaganda to disqualify Howard.

Gabrielson's advantage is that he is a member of the committee, one of the tried and true familiars. Because of his connections with big business, he has been a prevalent fund raiser in the past. He is president of Carthage Hydrocol, Inc., formed by a half dozen large corporations to manufacture gasoline synthetically from natural gas. Incidentally, Hydrocol has had loans from the Reconstruction Finance corporation have little resemblance to the normalcy of tion totalling $18,500,000.

The normalcy of 1949 and after would 1920 and after. The current of world events is today far swifter and America's status is far more immediately subject to what happens in distant places with strange sounding names. The life expectancy of this new normalcy, to use a phrase of the insurance underwriters, would be considerably less than the nine years that preceded the crash of 1929.

sults your intelligence with "aren't I?" register your protest at once by mailing this article (or a copy) to the offender.

Be sure to include your name and address with your comments. No one pays much attention to anonymous comments.

"Aren't I?" is corrupt and idiotic. Let's stamp it out!

"Ain't" is stigmatized by all authorities as illiterate or dialectal. Even so, it is more respectable than "aren't I?"

"Ain't" evolved as a contraction for "am not." It used to be written "am't." For some reason that is not clear "am't" finally became "ain't" and it is now used dialectally for "am not, is not, are not, has not, have not," as: "I ain't, he ain't, we ain't, she ain't been here, they ain't come yet," and so on.

Are you guilty of using "ain't" or "aren't I?" Mr. Colby discusses the errors in last- C-20. For a copy, send 5c in coin, and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to him, care of Escanaba Daily Press, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

Good Evening

NOT VALENTINE—Speculation on local place names continues to roll merrily along following a piece on that subject by Cheever Buckbee of Escanaba.

You may recall that Buckbee asked for information concerning a stream once known as "Smith Creek." Probate Judge William Miller, whose home is at Rapid River, reports that the stream now known as Rapid River, was originally called "Smith Creek."

Werner Vietzke of near Rapid River says that he has old maps in his possession that show the present Ford River spelled "Fort River." This is in agreement with the spelling on maps owned by Buckbee.

And J. Theodore Ohlen of Gladstone, Delta county clerk, points out that so-called Valentine Creek north of Garden should correctly be spelled "Ballantyne Creek." Old residents of Kate's Bay told the county clerk that Ballantyne was the name of an early settler in that area. How the Valentine came about we do not know, but a fancy heart-shaped roadside marker now informs the traveler that he is crossing "Valentine Creek."

OFF TO FINLAND—Esther Van Wagoner Tufty, Daily Press correspondent in Washington, is off to Finland with three newspapers and three magazine women as guests of the Finnish government. The trip will last about three weeks and the U. S. State Department is working out the details. The trip starts with the adjournment of congress, always followed by a lull in the capital.

Mrs. Tufty (she's the sister of Murray D. Van Wagoner, former Michigan governor and now head of the military government in Bavaria) just missed death when she failed to obtain a place on an ill-fated plane that carried American writers on a trip to Indonesia. All were killed when the plane crashed during a storm in India.

"Just hope this isn't another Indonesia kind of trip," Mrs. Tufty comments. "But if I crash, save some big type for page one, and skip carnations."

THE "NO" CLUB—There has been no organization meeting, no planning and no election of officers—yet a new club has blossomed in Escanaba.

It is the No Club. Among its charter members are George Greenhalgh, Escanaba recreation director; the Rev. James Bell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church; and Gene Hebert—and yours truly. The list is growing but there is no list.

"We the members of the No Club do hereby set forth the following purposes and rules of the club as follows:

"1—Every Friday night shall be kept entirely free, the year around, from organization meetings and exclusively reserved for home and family.

"2—The official slogan and password is 'NO!'

"3—No dues, no rules, no officers, no organization.

"4—Violators shall be publicly scorned and shunned."

The No Club members are making elaborate plans for a big picnic and outing to be held on Friday night, with a schedule of Friday night meetings and the sponsorship of a fund drive every two weeks. When all of the plans are made they will be cancelled.

THE FLOWER GARDEN—If you have visited the Chicago & North Western one dock offices recently you were probably surprised to find the area neatly landscaped and glowing with a profusion of colorful flowers.

There is a story behind that flower garden—a story you should know about. For it shows the men have pride in their work and in their surroundings.

Dockmen, working during their spare time and part of their lunch time, prepared the soil and arranged the flower beds to receive the seeds and plants. The plants were brought from the home gardens of the dockmen, transplanted at the docks, and watered and tended.

If you have seen that garden, I think you will agree that it is one of the finest in the city of Escanaba. Perhaps it is all the prettier because it is so unexpected. The dockmen have reason to be proud of it. Next year the perennials will be growing better than ever and the flower garden and dock grounds will be still more attractive.

WANTED: SOME BEANS—Kendrick Kimball, Detroit News outdoor editor, interviewed at St. Ignace the four French Rover Scouts who are canoeing Great Lakes waters on the route of Father Marquette. They started last spring at Three Rivers, Canada, and will end the Marquette route at New Orleans, after 4,500 miles of paddling. Kimball's office-record report may interest Escanabans, who will see the youths here on Aug. 10.

"They are traveling on 15 bucks each, and hungry most of the time. Fifteen bucks per week. If you can promote a few cans of beans for them it will be a good deed. The Coast Guard or someone will probably have to rescue them along the line. They will camp on the beach enroute."

Prayers for Freedom

Dear Editor:

When we go to church this Sunday, let's kneel down and thank God that we are still able to go to the church of our own choice. The less fortunate people behind the iron curtain who, under a government that promises to free all mankind from capitalistic slavery, must endure life in a Soviet "paradise" which denies them the fundamental right to worship as they please. It takes only a minute to say that little prayer but it may decide how you will spend the rest of your life. Let us pray that it won't happen here. More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of.

Beauty of the Park

Dear Editor:

The beauty of Ludington Park is most apparent on evenings when the moon sends its friendly beams over the waters of Bay de Noc. Very frequently during the summer months tourist visitors here, enchanted by the beautiful water scenery, spend hours at night at the park.

Now the city has decided to close the park at 12 p. m. and the cops will chase out anyone found in the park after that hour. Silly, isn't it, to deny the people the right to a beautiful evening all for free? After all, it isn't costing the city anything to let the people enjoy this beauty.

Potato Subsidy Program

Dear Editor:

City wage earners, who are having a hard time making both ends meet, certainly should oppose the Brannan farm program. The $3.457 paid to the average potato grower in America is lush profit when over half of the heads of families in America have an income of less than $3,000 per year.

The potato subsidy bleeds the consumer who not only pays a high food price but also pays the tax which supports such a lopsided program.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington—Gen. Harry Vaughan, the president's jovial, back-slapping, poker-playing military aide, holds the official title of "Coordinator of Veterans Affairs." As such he is supposed to help veterans.

But yesterday this column showed how when the Tanforan race track in California violated building regulations aimed the speed veterans' housing, General Harry Vaughan used his influence not to help the veterans, but to help the race track. His known influence was brought to bear in the fall of 1947.

Here is what happened. After Guy Standifer and other Tanforan officials were jailed in California for violating housing regulations, Eugene Mori, new president of the race track, called on the office of the housing expediter in Washington in October 1947.

With him came the fabulous Greek friend of General Vaughan's, John Maragon, who had accompanied President Truman to Potsdam, caused the demolition of an Air Force general, once held a White House pass and a special White House parking reservation. This is the same Maragon who has demanded that this columnist be called before a Senate investigating committee. Needless to say I should be happy to appear.

Mori and Maragon informed the housing expediter's office that the Tanforan track was now under new ownership, though how they offered any proof remains a mystery, since the wartime owner, Joe Reinfield, never was known to the public. Reinfield, one of the biggest rum-runners of prohibition days, was the chief secret owner, and his name only leaked out on January 15, 1949, when he was sued in federal court.

Fifteen months earlier, however—in October, 1949—Eugene Mori had told government officials that he was Tanforan's new owner.

GENERAL VAUGHAN INTERVENES
It was at about this point that General Vaughan first intervened. Apparently he didn't like the way the housing expediter treated his bosom pal, Maragon, for he complained about it to his other pal, lobbyist James Hunt, and a few days later Hunt showed up at the housing expediter's office alone.

Hunt told housing officials that his friends from the Tanforan track hadn't been treated courteously. He also warned that Housing Chief Frank Creeden could not afford to get in wrong with his "friends," though he did not identify who those friends were.

Housing officials blew up, said there had been no lack of courtesy and did not change the injunction which banned the use of building materials by Tanforan.

HUNT AND MARAGON WERE RIVALS
The lobbying talks dragged on. Hunt and Maragon vied with each other to see who could do the most for Tanforan. At one point, lobbyist Hunt complained to housing officials that he was being pestered by Maragon, that Maragon telephoned at all hours of the day and night, even insulted Mrs. Hunt.

Another time Maragon phoned Jack O'Brien of the housing expediter's office, said he was "Drew Pearson" and demanded to know what was "going on around there." The call insinuated skulduggery and was aimed to upset Hunt's lobbying efforts.

After more than a month of this, General Vaughan apparently concluded that his boy friends weren't equal to the job. So he telephoned Housing Expediter Tighe Woods himself and asked for an appointment. Later that afternoon Vaughan appeared in Woods' office, explained that he was personally interested in Tanforan, argued that the track's ownership had changed, and that the government's policy was to grant building permits to clean up fire hazards.

Tighe Woods had then been in office only six days, and the influence of the White House was potent.

He sent a memo to the justice department stating that the injunction against Tanforan could be lifted. Simultaneously Tanforan submitted notices from the obliging city of San Bruno claiming that the race track was a fire and health hazard unless cleaned up.

So, at long last, the ban on Tanforan was lifted—chiefly on General Vaughan's plea that its ownership had changed.

As of this week, however, justice department officials, when queried, said they had no evidence that the ownership of the race track had really changed.

Van Gogh Album
Will Be Published

New York, N. Y.—George Macy, director of the Heritage Press, New York, announces publication of the Van Gogh album, which will be released this fall.

The album will include 43 reproductions of Vincent Van Gogh's paintings and a reproduction of his one etching, a portrait of his friend, Dr. Gachet. One Painting, "Vegetable Gardens" is reproduced on canvas in full color. There will be a brief description of each work, in addition to a chronology of Van Gogh's life.

When Irving Stone's biographical novel about Van Gogh's life, "Lust for Life" was first published 15 years ago, interest showed in the painter was phenomenal. Visitors stormed the museum of Modern Art, and long after the museum was closed, visitors were found wandering in its corridors. No such mob fury had ever greeted a New York art exhibition.

Museum directors in the United States asked for the collection to be exhibited, and while the exhibit was on tour, Heritage Press brought out a fine edition of the Stone novel with 144 reproductions of Van Gogh paintings. J. B. Neumann, authority on Van Gogh, was art editor of the Stone book.

The same plates are now being used to make the Van Gogh album.

Gala Mid-Summer
Party At Park

Ludington Park was the setting for a colorful mid-summer party, held Thursday afternoon under the sponsorship of the City Recreation department.

Eighty-five children had a busy week of preparation, prior to the gala occasion, making all of the decorations and prizes. The centerpieces were decorated vases, holding crepe paper apple blossoms, and the table clothes were trimmed with crayon apple blossoms the napkins being bright with wallpaper cutouts. Pastel crepe paper party hats, and lace-trimmed basket nut cups, with attached name cards, completed the decorations.

Mrs. Bertha LaChapell, who was in charge of the party, also is in charge of the handicraft classes, held daily from 10:30 to 4:30. The party was in the form of a pot-luck. Games were played before lunch and several contests were held, guest prizes going to Judy Thompson, Sandy Sairs and Carol Bathke, Shirley MacGillis, Mary Jo Gasman and Aloha Green.

An amateur contest was held, with first honors going to Jean LaBranch, who sang "A You're Adorable," and Verlyn Millington received second when she sang "Eight O'clock Is Striking." Little June Hardy received a prize for being the youngest guest at the party.

Slow service is not a general characteristic of Manistique stores but some places are vulnerable in that respect as is evidenced by a letter from Detroit, received early this week by Judge W. G. Stephens:

"The meter system is a very good method for a city, but at the same time the service in the stores should be improved. When one estimates an hour for shopping, but spends that hour waiting for service, the meter system is inconvenient."

Mr. and Mrs. Carveth Mitchell, of Detroit, were guests Thursday at the home of Judge and Mrs. W. G. Stephens.

The meeting had more than ordinary significance because many years ago, in their native Cornwall village, Judge Stephens was Mrs. Mitchell's Sunday school teacher. That was more than forty years ago. Many years later, they met again—in Manistique. Mrs. Mitchell recognized her old friend and teacher immediately.

Seney Wildlife Refuge Biologist To Speak Here

Elizabeth B. Beard, biologist for the Seney National Wildlife Refuge, and nationally known authority on birdlife, particularly waterfowl, will speak before the Manistique Rotary club at its regular meeting next Monday noon.

In her letter to A. J. Cayla, accepting the invitation, Mrs.

Beard states that she would like to emphasize the fact that 1949 marks the completion of the first 100 years work in conservation by the Department of the Interior.

Mrs. Beard says: "We believe that although much remains to be done, we have accomplished much of significant value. Our system of national wildlife refuges we consider to be an important contribution to the cause of conservation. We believe that they are not only one of the ways that will save our wildlife for the present, but will also enable us to pass this heritage on to future generations undiminished and perhaps even increased."

Concerning the Seney refuge she gives some information which is perhaps not generally known. It is the fourth largest in more than two hundred refuges operated by the Fish and Wildlife Service and scattered over the United States. It was started in 1935 and consists of 96,000 acres. All wildlife is protected within the refuge and special attempts are made to encourage increasingly large numbers of waterfowl to nest on the area. The Canada goose was stocked in 1936, and is now established as a native breeding bird not only within the refuge, but in suitable surrounding countryside as well.

Mrs. Beard has the distinction of being the only woman biologist assigned to a wildlife refuge to do research work in the field. She has been at the Seney refuge from May 1 to September 1 for the past three years. Her special assignment has been three-fold: (1) to study the use of various habitat present on the refuge by waterfowl, so that steps may be taken to increase the acreage of these types used by the ducks; (2) to study the relation of beaver to waterfowl; (3) to census the waterfowl population. Results of these studies will be published in the near future.

She is the co-author with W. W. Chase of the University of Michigan of three study manuals relating to the teaching and study of the principles of wildlife management. She has also written numerous articles on wildlife management and ornithology.

Only George S. May Knows Combination At Tam O'Shanter

Chicago, Aug. 5. (AP)—George S. May's $66,200 golfing marathon left the post today with half a three-in-one tourney field of 400 flailing Tam O'Shanter's profitable pastures.

For the next five days, May will conduct the 72-hole all-American championship, a combination of a $20,000 professional, men's amateur and women's open showdown.

Then, next Thursday, May offers his super-duper "World Championship of Golf," a 72-hole, four-tourneys-in-one affair which carries a $35,200 men's professional purse, including $10,000 for the winner. Women pros and amateurs will compete separately in this one.

May's calculation of the $66,200 total swag also includes bonuses ranging from $500 to $1,000 for breaking the course record in the various divisions, $5,600 in women's prizes, and value of merchandise to be awarded top amateurs.

The bald-domed May, former Bible salesman, figures to get his money back at the gate and the refreshment stands during the 10-day fairways circus—if the fans don't quit before the players.

The other half of the field will continue first round play tomorrow. Then May, using a slide-rule of his own making, will hack the field to 120 pros, 40 amateurs and 30 women for Sunday's second round.

Leading the professional stars who teed off today were defending champion Lloyd Mangrum, roving ambassador of the Host Club; Ed (Porky) Oliver, who lost a 1947 all-American playoff to Bobby Locke; Johnny Palmer, Chick Harbert, Jimmy Darnell, Dutch Harrison and Clayton Haefer.

Press On Spot Tonight vs. St. Joe Boosters

The most important game of the year (as far as the Oldtimers' league is concerned) will take place tonight at the lighted field when the league-leading St. Joe Boosters bump into last year's champion Daily Press team in the feature game at 9 o'clock. Birds F. and Northern A. meet in the preliminary at 7:15.

The Press team just win this one in order to stay in the running for another league championship but they have a tough job on their hands. The Boosters have a record of 11 straight victories and a win tonight would just about clinch the circuit title for 1949.

Job Anderson will be on the hill for the Press and Bill Doucette will pitch for the Boosters. Anderson did a lot of pitching for the Paper Mill not so long ago

'It Seems To Me'

By JIM WARD

Cuff notes: If you were to try to pick a winner in the Delta county tennis tourney men's singles, you couldn't go far wrong by just putting a flock of certain names in a hat and plucking one out. . . . It's going to be a tough fight. . . . The youngsters say the oldtimers look tough, and the veterans say they're in it just for the fun and some youngster will take it in a breeze. . . . Those vets aren't kidding anyone. . . . They're out to win if they can. . . . Who-ever got tired of winning?

The youngsters have ample respect for the oldtimers' experience and willness. . . . And that may carry the vets a long way, but the championship is going to go to some fellow, young or old, who has been practicing more or less regularly, has the ground strokes fairly well polished and is hitting the ball squarely. . . . It takes a lot of time and practice to get "in the groove" and perfect the timing.

The golfers are priming for the official U. P. championship tourney in Iron Mountain and Norway Aug. 11-12-13-14. . . . Highland's team contestants will be John Milovich, captain; Ronnie Hirm, Jim Douglas, Gerald Harris and Edward Gravelle. . . . That fellow in the No. 5 slot, incidentally, just took up the game a couple of years ago.

Among other Highlanders going are Stanley Soderlund, Merton Jensen, Gladwin Oberg, Eugene Harris and Bud M. Stadel. . . . Mert Jensen's official entry letter to the tourney manager, Don Smith, reads as follows: "The following member wishes to be entered in the Borey Busters tournament: Bud M. Stadel."

The Borey Busters is for golfers 40 years of age and older who could go for a little 18-hole qualifying and nine-hole match play but without any regrets whatsoever could get along without the rugged 36-hole-a-day schedule of the championship proper. . . . It's the first time it's ever been tried, and chances are it will go over with a bang. . . . The Borey Busters meet is NOT to be confused with the U. P. senior tournament in Escanaba, Aug. 27. . . . You have to be 50 or over to qualify for that one.

Cleveland's Flair For Winning Close Ones Is Rough On Yankees

Indians Cop 12 Out Of 13

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Cleveland's flair for winning extra inning games may mean the difference in the American league pennant race.

While the leading New York Yankees have blown eight of 11 overtime decisions, the 1948 world champions have copied 12 of 13.

As a result the Indians today are only 2 1/2 games out of first place. Not since mid-May have the Yanks faced such a direct threat as both Cleveland and Boston now present. The Red Sox, winning nine of 11 since returning to Fenway Park, now are only five games behind New York.

That old extra inning trouble felled the Yanks again yesterday when they lost to Detroit in 11 innings, 3-2. Pat Mullin, who murders New York pitching, broke up the game with his fourth single of the day, scoring Eddie Lake.

Feller Is Winner
Cleveland pulled another long game out of the fire, trimming Washington, 6-3, in 12 innings to take the first of their twilight-night doubleheader.

Gambling all the way, Manager Lou Boudreau used Bob Lemon, his pitching ace, in relief and Lemon picked up his 13th on a three-run spurge in the 12th. Then the Indians proceeded to humble the Senators, 14-1, for a clean sweep on Bobby Feller's six hitter.

Dale Mitchell led the assault on four Washington pitchers with five hits as Feller struck out nine.

The slugging Boston Red Sox didn't have to go overtime, smothering the St. Louis Browns, 12-2 with 14 hits. Don DiMaggio, still on a consecutive game hitting spree that has reached 31 contests, took over the league batting lead at .347 with two hits.

A scheduled Chicago-Philadelphia night game was postponed on account of rain.

Cards, Bums Win
Both the St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers went on double-figure batting sprees to keep step in the National league race where the Cards still hold a half game margin.

St. Louis routed Boston, 10-2, to make it three out of four over the defending champs. Ron Northey and Stan Musial and Red Schoendienst each had three hits in the 17-hit barrage.

Home runs by Gil Hodges, Duke Snider and Tommy Brown led Brooklyn's 14-hit attack in an 11-3 romp over Pittsburgh. Don Newcomb, although tagged for 11 hits, hung up win No. 10.

Cincinnati made it four in a row, a new high for the Reds this season, by taking a pair from the sinking Phillies, 8-5 and 9-1.

Cincy knocked out Russ Meyer with a four-run blast in the first inning of the opener and continued to bang out 11 hits including homers by Danny Litwiler and Ted Kuszewski.

Johnny Vander Meer threw a five-hitter at the Phils in the second game, losing his shutout on Del Ennis' 14th homer in the ninth.

First No-Hit Game Of Season In AA

Nothe's feat followed by 24 hours the sparkling performance of Hal White, Toledo right hander, who held Minneapolis to one hit Wednesday in winning a 4 to 1 decision.

Tigers Take Series From Yanks; Mullin Has Big Day At Bat

Boston, Aug. 5. (AP)—Grinning like cheshire cats after winning a thriller from the league-leading New York Yankees, the Detroit Tigers invaded Boston today for a three game series with the Red Sox.

The Bengals' 3 to 2 victory over the Yankees in eleven innings yesterday helped cut the New York lead over Cleveland to two and a half games. It also gave Detroit the series at New York, two games to one. And it evened the season series with the Yanks at nine-all.

Centerfield Pat Mullin, nemesis of Yank pitchers, punched out the winning hit, a single to right. It brought in Eddie Lake from third after two were out in the top of the eleventh.

Fred Hutchinson, who held the Yankees to five hits, was credited with the victory. He was relieved in the eleventh by Virgil Trucks because it was getting gray and hazy.

Mullin got four hits off the Yankee ace, Vic Raschi. His first hit, a single to center, scored Hutchinson in the third with the Tigers' tying run.

Raschi, who has won 15 games, was tagged with his sixth defeat by the Tigers. Half of his defeats have come at the hands of the Tigers and they are the only team he has not beaten this season.

Hutchinson now has won nine and lost four. Three of his wins came on the present tour of the Tigers who have won eight and lost three with only three games to go in Boston over the weekend.

The Yanks gambled on one play in the eleventh in a desperate attempt to salvage the game. Trucks had walked Phil Rizzuto with one out. Tommy Henrich flied short to Mullin. Then Rizzuto tried to steal second, but Aaron Robinson pegged perfectly and Johnny Lipon had the ball waiting for the speedy Yank shortstop. The game was over.

Al the Yank scoring came in the first inning when Henrich, Joe DiMaggio and Charlie Keller each doubled. The Tigers reduced the margin to one in the second. Vic Wertz singled and raced to third on a double by George Kell. Wertz scored on Robinson's infield out.

The Yankees gave the Tigers a bad time in the ninth and appeared to be on the edge of a rally. Yogi Berra sent three balls into right field stands in trying for a homer. But they were all foul and Yogi later went out. Then Keller, with two out, shot one high into the right field sands which barely urned foul. Keller finally bunted out to the box for the third out.

Manager Red Rolfe said either Ted Gray or Trucks will face Boston's Jack Kramer in the opener tonight.

College All-Stars Get Down to Work

Evansville, Ill., Aug. 5. (AP)—The college All-Stars settled down to the routine of daily football drills today after being feted yesterday at a luncheon attended by 1,000 guests.

Bud Wilkinson, all star head coach, planned to stress defense again today, as his charges continued their preparation for the meeting with the Philadelphia Eagles. Chicago's Soldier Field the night of Aug. 12. It will be the 16th annual all star attraction.

With a week of practice remaining before he moves his squad of 70 to the huge lake front Stadium, Wilkinson has shortened the daily sessions.

Lions Release Pair, Pick Up A Holdout

Ypsilanti, Mich., Aug. 5. (AP)—The Detroit Lions released a pair of players today and welcomed into camp their season's lone holdout.

Cut adrift were quarterback Steve Nemeth, formerly of Notre Dame, and tackle Frank Pizka of the University of Toledo.

The late arrival was quarterback Gene Malinowski, formerly of the University of Detroit and the Boston Yanks. He had refused to sign until the Lions agreed to a bonus. The Lions refused. Terms of his contract were not disclosed.

Nemeth, 26, was attempting a comeback in the National football league championship. His home is in South Bend, Ind.

Pizka, a 23-year-old 270 pounder, asked Coach Bo McMillan for his release following a recurring leg injury suffered in Wednesday's scrimmage. His home is in Toledo, O.

Meanwhile, the Lions awaited word from center Merv Pregulman of Lansing, former University of Michigan player, who has yet to appear for training.

Pregulman, vice president of a Lansing Furniture company, has left the Lions hanging as to his plans this year. He is on the terminal end of a two-year contract and his last word was that vacations being taken by his company personnel made it imperative that he remain in Lansing.

Doncaster Royal infirmary said the British heavyweight champion had a severely bruised shoulder, but that there were no broken bones or internal injuries. His car struck a tree.

COUNCIL OKES 3 BUS ROUTES

Better Service Planned
By Transit Line

Approval of three bus routes in Escanaba was granted by the city council last night, upon application of the Delta Transit company and recommendation of the city planning commission.

One route would operate clockwise from the intersection of 17th street and Ludington, on Ludington east to 10th street, south to 10th avenue, west to 14th street, north to Eighth avenue, west to 17th street and north to Ludington street to complete the circuit.

A second route would operate counter-clockwise, starting at 14th and Ludington, south to Lake Shore Drive, Lake Shore Drive to Sixth street, north to Ludington and thence east to 14th street.

The third route would be on Ludington to Stephenson avenue, north on Stephenson to 16th avenue north, east to Sheridan road, south to 15th avenue north, east to Washington avenue, hence to Stephenson and return to Ludington.

Transfer stations would be established at 10th street and 14th street intersections of Ludington street. On Ludington street bus stops would be established every two blocks, at the even numbered street intersections. A special parking area would be established at the Y intersection of Stephenson, Sheridan and Washington to eliminate a serious traffic hazard at that point.

It has not been indicated when the new routes will be put into operation.

There will be no discharge of passengers at the stop light intersection of Ludington and 11th streets, even though the bus may be required to stop for a red light.

Ingrid To Give Up Spouse and Movies; May Wed Director

Rome, Aug. 5 (AP)—Ingrid Bergman announced today that she will divorce her husband, Dr. Peter Lindstrom. She also said she will quit the movies.

The beautiful Swedish star made the declaration in a deeply emotional statement issued to reporters by her personal representative, Joseph Steele.

Sources close to the actress reported she intends to marry Italian director Roberto Rossellini after her divorce.

Miss Bergman's statement said: "It was my desire not to make any statement until the conclusion of the picture I am now making ('After the Storm')."

"But persistent malicious gossip, that has even reached the point where I am made to appear as a prisoner, has obliged me to break my silence and demonstrate my free will."

"I have instructed my lawyer to start divorce proceedings immediately. Also, with the conclusion of my present picture, it is my intention to retire into private life."

Ex-Convict Killed In Chicago C. & N.W. Freight Shed Battle

Chicago, Aug. 5 (AP)—A young ex-convict was shot and killed and three policemen were wounded yesterday in a wild gun battle with more than 50 policemen.

The spectacular fight ended in the death of Edward Shumak, 22, in the freight shed of the North Western Railroad station. It climaxed a wild chase through loop traffic in which several shots were fired.

After a mad dash from pursuing policemen, Shumak barricaded himself in a warehouse in the station shed. A 20-minute battle followed. Pedestrians scattered as 29 squads of police fired machine guns, rifles and pistols.

When Shumak refused to surrender, police tossed a tear gas bomb through the door. Half blinded, Shumak dashed out firing two guns. Two officers were wounded.

Earlier, Shumak, who had served a prison term for burglary and was wanted for auto larceny, shot and wounded patrolman William Quinn, 38, who had stopped him for a traffic violation.

Israeli Freighter Held In $1,000,000 Machine Smuggling

Frankfurt, Germany, Aug. 5 (AP)—U. S. Army authorities at Bremerhaven today seized an Israeli freighter which they said was being loaded with $1,000,000 worth of illegally-transported machinery.

An Army announcement identified the ship as the Dromit, flying the Israeli flag. Her owners were not immediately identified.

The fraudulently - documented machinery was labeled as "household goods" of Jewish immigrants to Palestine, the announcement said. Army officials called the smuggling attempt "the biggest ever discovered" by the American occupation authorities.

LIGHTNING HEATS WATER

Marion, (AP)—No matter which faucet was turned on, the Gilbert Chillicothe family got hot water after a severe thunderstorm. Lightning struck wires leading into the home and heated water in all the water pipes.

The 45,000 square feet of faience clay tile wall surfacing in the network of subway concourses under Philadelphia's City Hall section is believed to constitute the largest faience tile installation in the world.

Flop Of Chiang Changes U. S. A. Chinese Policy

directed to this end. Acheson said the Communist regime serves the interests "of Soviet Russia." He advised the President it may "lend itself to the aims of Soviet Russian imperialism" to start an aggression against China's neighbor nations.

If that aggression comes, Acheson indicated the United States would try to block it through the United Nations.

While not all China is presently under the Red banner, Acheson said in another document of the white paper, the Communists can take over the rest any time they are powerful enough to resist. He thus advised Chairman Connally (D-Texas) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee March 15.

For the "ominous result of the Chinese civil war," Acheson placed full blame on Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and other leaders of the crumbling National government. He said they "lost no battle" in the last crucial year for lack of American weapons.

(Only yesterday Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) proposed, with the backing of 11 other senators, that China be cut in for part of the aid in the $1,450,000,000 program for arming friendly nations. Under the proposal, China would be put down for $175,000,000, and a U. S. mission to the Nationalist government would advise on its spending.)

Popular Support Fails
The failures of Chiang and his men, Acheson said, were due to loss of popular support and loss by the armies of the will to fight. The Communists battled with "fanatical zeal," Acheson added, but "The Nationalist armies did not have to be defeated; they disappeared."

To support the position that Chinese—not American—leaders were to blame for the disaster, the state department included among the unveiled state documents a sensational letter from China's current acting president, General Li Tsung-jen.

Li, who succeeded Chiang Kai-shek as chief of state, wrote President Truman May 5, 1949, that China was brought to its present plight by the failure of its previous government (Chiang's) to make "judicious use" of American aid and to put through "political, economic and military reforms."

The two-inch thick white paper (official diplomatic record) spanning more than a century, contains probably the most slashing criticism ever issued by the United States against another friendly government, even a dying one. It pours out all the known and secret reasons and arguments why the Truman administration for more than a year now has fought all demands in Congress for any major new China aid program.

Even the two-year-old report of Lt. General Albert C. Wedemeyer, made to President Truman in 1947, is disclosed to have tempered its proposal for China aid with a big "if." Wedemeyer advocated a five-year aid program but said Chiang should undertake drastic reforms and should place Manchuria under United Nations trusteeship to keep the Communists from taking over.

Acheson hoped it was this recommendation regarding Manchuria, Acheson said, which caused the report to be suppressed so long. He said the suggestion for alienation of Chinese territory would have caused trouble with the Nationalist government if published at that time. The full record of 1054 pages includes 409 pages of a running account of American-Chinese relations and a total of 186 "annexes," which are in the main the texts of previously secret papers. Roving Ambassador Philip C. Jessup edited the book. Now he is working on detailed development of Acheson's new China policy.

About what can be done, Acheson spoke only in general terms. He expressed the belief that "ultimately" the Chinese people "will reassert themselves" and China "will throw off the foreign yoke."

The United States, he said, "should encourage all developments in China which now and in the future work toward this end."

Acheson added that what the U. S. can do will depend on "the degree to which the Chinese people come to recognize that the Communist regime serves not their interests but those of Soviet Russia and the manner in which they react to this foreign domination."

The review brings out that various means were tried to achieve those objectives.

During the war with Japan, when President Roosevelt was concerned to keep all China in the fight, he tried to get Generalissimo Chiang to name the late General Joseph W. Stilwell as commander in chief of Chinese and American forces. The idea was to unify Chinese armed forces under a "neutral" Chiang agreed in principle but never did anything about it.

Chiang, he said, sought to "dominate rather than unify and lead" China in the face of the Japanese offensive. The United States, he said, failed by its "general parental admonishments" to force Chiang into unity.

Archaeologists have found remains in Kansas which indicate that three and four toed horses no larger than a fox terrier once made that part of the country their habitat.

Townships, Cities Given

Townships and cities and villages are receiving a total of $53,778.46 in the distribution of Michigan sales tax diversion money, it was reported today from the office of the county treasurer.

The distribution of sales tax money is for the period from April 1 to June 30, 1949, and is on the basis of $1.58 per capita, as follows:

Townships—Baldwin $1,401.46; Bark River $2,175.66; Bay de Noc $720.48; Brampton $936.94; Cornell $974.66; Ensign $972.16; Esau $1,602.12; Fairbanks $925.88; Ford River $1,361.96; Garden $821.60; Maple Ridge $2,202.52; Masonville $2,322.60; Naima $1,967.10; Wells $3,476.

Cities—Escanaba $23,431.40; Gladstone $7,855.76; village of Garden $729.96.

In addition to the state sales tax money being distributed to the townships and cities, the office of the county treasurer is distributing to them $1,676.74 as their share of delinquent taxes collected during the month of July.

Escanaba city received $786.98 and Gladstone $104.24 in the settlement. The remainder was to the townships.

Nudists Don Clothes For Show In Denver

Birthday Suits Are More
Sociable, Skinfolk Say

Denver, Aug. 5 (AP)—Nudists put on their clothes last night and attended a dramatic show at their annual convention.

"After all we're the American Sunbathing Association," explained Mary Kilgore, one of the nudists, "and we're here for the convention in Deer Creek Canyon, southwest of Denver. The nudists ignored a newspaper reader's suggestion they should have assembled in nearby Bear Canyon."

Last night's affair was less sociable for some of the skinfolk than their clothesless frolics. The absence of clothes makes for a more sociable life, a pair of Topeka, Kans. girls, Mildred and Mary, told an interviewer.

"You understand we mean all clothes off," Mildred said. "Just a wee bit of clothes is much worse than nothing at all. Take those new French bathing suits. They're simply horrible. Not only are they the most sex-provocative things in existence but they're absolutely useless for swimming purposes."

The people running around in their birthday suits at the convention are perfectly at ease, a Texan told an interviewer.

"When you're undressed and everyone around is the same way, why, you don't even notice the different physiques about you," he insisted.

Finance Companies Lose Millions To Used Car Swindlers

Detroit, Aug. 5 (AP)—"Fly-by-night" used-car dealers have swindled finance companies in the Detroit area alone at a $3,500,000-a-year clip, the government reported today.

U. S. District Attorney Edward T. Kane said such dealers finance the cars, give title to the finance companies, then ship the cars to other states, obtain title there themselves, and sell the cars elsewhere.

The racket is nation-wide, Kane said, adding that he had no estimate on the loss to finance companies throughout the country.

An indictment returned by a federal grand jury here yesterday against a former Hazel Park, Mich., used-car dealer was described by Kane as the opening gun in a government drive to crack down on illegal sale of mortgaged cars.

The indictment accused James de Rose, 40, of peddling mortgaged cars across state lines without first legally clearing the titles. De Rose's attorney said he would plead innocent upon arraignment in federal court today.

Cool Winds Dispel Los Angeles Smell

Los Angeles, Aug. 5 (AP)—Cool breezes early today drove off the smell from this smog-conscious area.

The foul, garlic-like odor which hung over some 200 square miles of the city and suburbs yesterday made its noxious return last night. However, winds soon dispersed the stench.

The U. S. weather bureau said that a circular wind pattern—just reverse of ordinary—was noted at the same time as the odor. That could indicate that the stench might have come from oil refinery areas in the southwest sections of the city.

Ordinary winds patterns blow the refinery odors out to sea.

Jap Industrialist Out Picking Pockets

Tokyo, Aug. 5 (AP)—Police picking up pickpockets picked up the president of an automobile body plant.

And what they asked the little Japanese industrialist, was such a respectable citizen doing picking pockets?

Collections from customers were most difficult, he replied. Had to get money some way to pay the help.

President Says Program Can't Be Trimmed Off

of Democrats on the committee, which is considering legislation to give life to the program, said the president's decision not to press for the broad powers originally requested amounted to an admission that the entire program can be trimmed safely.

That was the main thing opponents objected to when the plan was submitted last week. Most of them agree that there must be some kind of program to help Atlantic pact and other friendly nations arm against possible Soviet aggression.

Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) said the president's decision to drop the controversial power-granting provision "looks like encouraging progress toward a bill that can be passed."

Opposition Gets Hearing
But there still are "some other hurdles," he added, without elaboration.

Senator Dulles (R-NY), another critic, said the president's attitude will make it much easier to get congressional approval of the program.

House committee members who want to get the bill on the House floor by the middle of this month withheld comment on a move by Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) and 11 other Senate Republicans to earmark $175,000,000 of the arms program for aid to non-Communist China.

While many House members believe China should be included, they want to withhold a final plan until they have had a chance to read through the state department's China white paper" being made public today.

They also want to hear what the opposition has to say about the program.

To date, the committee has heard only backers of the bill. Today it listed ten witnesses for an all-day hearing and most of them were expected to oppose the program.

Magazine Outlines Peace Deal Sought By Premier Stalin

New York, Aug. 5 (AP)—The magazine "United Nations World" has outlined a five-point "peace plan," said to be in the mind of Soviet Prime Minister Stalin.

The August issue of the privately published magazine quoted an unidentified "top-ranking American businessman who is also a respected Republican, churchman and civic leader."

It said this man had a conversation on the subject in the summer of 1948 with Andrei A. Gromyko, then Soviet delegate to the United Nations.

The magazine said the American jotted down Stalin's five conditions for peace after his talk with Gromyko. It said the points were:

1. A treaty between the U. S. and Russia formalizing the commitments of both countries as set forth in the Yalta and Potsdam documents.

2. Four-power unanimity on all questions concerning Germany.

3. Western generosity on reparations for Russia.

4. Immediate cessation of the American-British support of "subversive Fascist and Hitlerite elements."

5. Elimination of alleged discriminatory trade practices on the part of the U. S. and resumption of normal trade relations, stimulated by a $2,000,000,000 loan on terms similar to those of the U. S. loan to Britain in 1946.

POTTER DOUBTS PUBLIC HOUSING

11th District May Not Get Any Units

"If the 11th district of Michigan gets one housing unit out of the recently enacted public housing bill, I will be very much surprised," Congressman Charles E. Potter, Cheboygan Republican, said in a special interview here today.

Congressman Potter, a disabled veteran of World War II, is in Delta county to speak at the Rural Neighbor celebration in Gladstone this weekend.

While in Upper Michigan, the congressman also hopes to attend Father Marquette Day festivities at St. Ignace. He was previously scheduled to speak at St. Ignace but may not because of a time conflict.

Speaking on public housing, Congressman Potter emphasized that even if government, or social housing, were desirable, the government cannot afford it. "I saw some figures on the cost to the taxpayer of the 20 billion dollar housing program, which I opposed, and it will cost the American taxpayers something like $100 each."

People in the 11th district of Michigan will be paying taxes to provide houses for neighbors in New York City, and other large cities. About 90 per cent of the public housing is expected to be built in the 10 largest cities of the country," the Cheboygan congressman explained.

Potter said he did not approve of government housing in principle, and felt that the present housing legislation will not be able to sustain itself, nor meet the demands of all persons actually in need of housing.

"England is a concrete example of the failure of public housing," he said. "American dollars have been the sustaining factor in their program," he observed.

Manistique Harbor
He said the housing program is now being set up and that it will probably begin to materialize sometime this fall. It will provide about 810,000 homes, Potter said.

A public works bill, which includes harbor improvements for Manistique and Grand Marais, is now before Congress, for improvement authorization under the harbor and flood control plan. Appropriations for the improvement, which are expected to be approved by Congress, will be made next year, Potter stated.

There is a growing feeling in Washington, Potter said, to give priority in the letting of government contracts to areas economically distressed. The congressman said that definite action to codify this plan as policy probably would come up in the next Congress.

Asked when he thought the present session would be adjourned, Potter said, "About the first of September." Lewis Barry of Cheboygan accompanied Potter to Upper Michigan for the speaking engagements. Nothing of heavy import is scheduled now in Congress, Potter said.

"The excise tax is the most unfair tax we have, because it levies against rich and poor alike," Potter declared. He said that it will not be revoked, though, until the administration pares expenses.

Pare Expenses
"Government should do as individuals. When funds are low, it is better to tighten the belt a little, than to go in debt, by deficit financing or any other way," he emphasized. Until the administration does cut its expenses, there is little probability that the wartime imposed excise taxes will be removed. "The administration needs all the revenue it can get to maintain its present program," he explained.

financing or any other way," he emphasized. Until the administration does cut its expenses, there is little probability that the wartime imposed excise taxes will be removed. "The administration needs all the revenue it can get to maintain its present program," he explained.

Delay in refunding excess money paid by World War II veterans for national service life insurance, until 1950, an election year, is one of the biggest frauds there ever was, the congressman declared. "That money belongs to the veterans and not the government. It could have been refunded at least a year ago. Giving it back in an election year is sheer politics, to get veterans' votes by leading them to believe they are getting money from the government," he asserted.

A bill on minimum wage control is coming up in Congress, Potter said, but in all probability will merely increase the minimum, without extending coverage. The present 40 cent minimum is wholly inadequate, and was set up a number of years ago, he said. Efforts may be made to bring the minimum to 75 cents, but the ultimate minimum will be somewhere around 60 or 65 cents, he predicted.

Potter leaves Sunday to return to Washington. He is staying at the House of Ludington in Escanaba.

Charles Is Evasive About Lesnevich Go

Pompton Lakes, N. J., Aug. 5 (AP)—Ezzard Charles ducks predictions as he slides punches. Pinning down the NBA heavyweight champion is as tough as beating him. Few can do it.

Will he knock out Gus Lesnevich next Wednesday night in their 15-round bout at the Yankee Stadium?

"If he gets in the way," said Charles, "he'll probably get knocked out."

Charles pays little attention to talk of Lesnevich's plans for a body attack. He has his own ideas about the kind of a fight to expect.

"I read about him planning that right to the body," said the Cincinnati Negro, "maybe, but I remember his left hook is pretty nice. I ain't telling you what I'm going to do and I don't think he's saying either."

Alleys Are Sprayed For Second Time

Alleys are being given their second spraying of DDT by a city forestry crew this week, Bob Clayton, city forester, has announced.

A weak solution of ½ of 1 per cent DDT is being used in the alley spraying program. This is sufficient to kill flies and mosquitoes, but the solution is entirely harmless to household pets, songbirds, bees and insects that are considered beneficial to mankind, Clayton said.

A third spraying of alleys is contemplated later in the season.
